Introduction

In compliance with the campus security and safety reporting requirements specified by the Federal Government, the following is Denver Seminary's combined 2020 Annual Safety and Security Report and Annual Fire Safety Report. These reports cover incidents of campus crime and fire in student housing during the 2019 calendar year, as well as policy and procedure information regarding security and safety. Federal regulations, under the Clery Act, require all public and private post-secondary educational institutions participating in federal student aid programs to publish an annual report that contains three years of campus crime statistics and fire statistics for the on-campus student housing facility.

Under amendments to the Clery Act mandated by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA), institutions of higher education are also required to compile statistics for incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, and include certain policies, procedures, and programs pertaining to these incidents in their Annual Safety and Security Report. This information is contained in this report.

Annual Security Report

Denver Seminary is committed to providing a safe environment for all members of each of our campus communities. We understand that appropriate policies, in conjunction with personal responsibility and vigilance on the part of all members of the Seminary community, are necessary to maintain an environment of safety. As our crime statistics indicate, we have been very fortunate historically in having a very low crime rate on our Littleton campus and in the immediate neighborhood. During the calendar year 2019, there were two Clery Act crimes reported on our campuses or on property adjacent to our campuses.

Denver Seminary's Mission

Denver Seminary prepares men and women to engage the needs of the world with the redemptive power of the gospel and the life-changing truth of Scripture. Through our educational programs and mentoring process, we challenge students to grow spiritually, intellectually, and professionally to lead God's people in the accomplishment of his mission in the world.

How to Report a Crime or Criminal Activity

Denver Seminary security personnel are on-duty 24/7, 365 days a year and can be reached at 303-961-1184, (or extension 1001 from a Seminary network phone). Students, faculty, and staff should call this number immediately to report a crime, or ANY situation where they believe safety to persons or property is threatened. (911 should be called whenever an emergency warrants.) In addition, members of the Seminary community are encouraged to call security if you need an escort from a building to their car or apartment, day or night.

The following persons can be contacted directly to report a criminal offense. (Security personnel will report crimes to these people in the event a crime report is given to them):

- Jay Stimson – Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security, 303-357-5818, Graber Administration Building, or, if unavailable:

All Seminary administration and classroom buildings are equipped with electronic locking systems and alarm systems that are operated according to a predetermined, seasonal schedule. Contact Jay Stimson regarding any questions concerning access to campus buildings. The campus residences in each of the four apartment buildings are individual, self-contained units with their own exterior locking doors.

The Facilities Department or Seminary security staff report the need for replacement of lights and any other physical hazards they notice.

Policy on Enforcement & Arrest Authority of Seminary Security Personnel

Denver Seminary security personnel have the authority to issue parking tickets, but not to arrest, and are to call Littleton Police Department (LPD) officers if such action is necessary.

Policy on the Working Relationship with Local Police

The Seminary has an excellent relationship with the Littleton Police Department and the Arapahoe Community College Police Department, facilitated by periodic meetings with officers. All members of the campus community are encouraged to promptly report crimes to Seminary authorities as well as LPD, when necessary.

Timely Warning Reports Policy

To keep the Seminary campus community informed about safety and security issues (as well as other issues such as weather-related closures) on an ongoing basis, it is our policy to issue a warning whenever a significant crime or threat to security is reported. If the crime is of the kind noted below (whether on the Seminary campus or the surrounding area), or law enforcement authorities notify us of a dangerous situation in progress in the vicinity of our campus, students, faculty, and staff will be alerted as soon as possible by one or more of the following means of communication, as deemed appropriate: Telephone intercom system, email, word-of-mouth, or the Rave Wireless Alert email and text messaging emergency alert system. The decision to make such a warning will be made by the Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security in consultation with other members of the Seminary administration and staff. In the event a Rave Wireless Alert message is required, it is usually issued by the Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security.

Missing Student Notification

A requirement of the 2010 Annual Safety Report was the establishment of policies and procedures for the reporting of missing student residents for schools that maintain on-campus housing facilities. These policies and procedures for Denver Seminary are as follows, in accordance with the guidelines of this requirement:

- The following should be contacted to report a student who resides in campus housing that has been missing for 24 hours:

- Each student living on-campus has the option to register a confidential contact person for notification in case that the student is determined to be missing. Only authorized Seminary personnel and law enforcement officers in conjunction with the missing person investigation are allowed access to this information. Contact Jay Stimson if you choose to register a confidential contact person.
- Local law enforcement (Littleton Police) will be notified if the Seminary is contacted regarding a campus resident student missing for 24 hours, even if the student has not registered a contact person.
- In addition, the Seminary will notify the parent or guardian of a missing student under the age of 18 and not emancipated.
- A missing student report will be issued by Seminary personnel and referred to members of the Executive Leadership Council, as well as the local law enforcement agency.
- The following procedures will be followed when a student who resides in on-campus housing is determined to have been missing for 24 hours:
 - When notification of a missing student is received by Seminary personnel, members of the Executive Leadership Council (ELC – President, Provost/Dean, VP Finance, VP Student Life and Enrollment Management, VP Advancement) will be informed via cell phone call or text message.
 - From this communication, decisions will be made regarding the calling of local law enforcement and a confidential contact person and/or parents, if appropriate.
 - A missing student report will be written by the appropriate Seminary personnel and provided to the ELC and law enforcement.

- Communication will continue among all concerned, the ELC, director-level personnel, law enforcement and contact persons(s), if appropriate, until the missing student is located.

Title IX and Sexual Misconduct

The Denver Seminary community has the right to be free from sexual violence and is committed to providing a non-discriminatory and harassment-free educational, living and working environment for all members of its community, including students, faculty, administrators, staff, and visitors. Denver Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of sex in admission to its educational programs, activities, and regulations, as they apply to programs and decisions. All members of the Denver Seminary community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. All forms of sexual or gender-based harassment, discrimination, and misconduct, including sexual violence, sexual assault, stalking and dating violence is prohibited. The Seminary will not tolerate sexual harassment, sexual violence, stalking or dating violence. Any student or employee who is found to have violated this policy may face disciplinary sanctions up to and including expulsion, or termination.

The Seminary encourages prompt reporting of any incident of gender-based discrimination and/or sexual misconduct to Seminary officials and local law enforcement or civil rights enforcement agencies. The Seminary provides complaint procedures for students and employees who feel they have been subjected to sexual harassment or other unlawful sex discrimination, and the Seminary will take prompt and effective action upon receipt of such a report. Any student who feels the Seminary has violated Title IX or its implementing regulations may optionally make a complaint to the Office for Civil Rights or the U.S. Department of Education. Inquiries regarding the application of Title IX can be referred to any member of the Title IX team listed below.

What is Title IX?

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (hereafter referred to as Title IX) is the federal law that protects individuals from discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activities. Specifically, Title IX states:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Sexual harassment is also prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Act, and other applicable statutes.

Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Policies and Procedures

The following information regarding Title IX is summative in nature for the purposes of this report. Denver Seminary's policies and procedures regarding sexual misconduct can be found in their entirety in the Sexual Misconduct Policies and Procedures Manual. Individuals should consult this document for full reference.

Sexual misconduct encompasses a broad range of actions commonly represented by unwanted sexual activity, touching, or behavior. More specifically, sexual misconduct refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to incapacitation. Intimate partner violence refers to any act of violence or threatened act of violence, sexual or otherwise, against a person who is or has been involved in a sexual, dating, domestic or other intimate relationship with that person. Attempting any of the above-described behaviors is also sexual misconduct. Detailed definitions and descriptions of sexual misconduct and sexual violence are provided in the Denver Seminary Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedure Manual \(Section V\).

Instructions for Victims of Sexual Violence

1. Go to a safe place and call someone. Call 911.
2. Do not shower, wash your hands or fingernails, change or remove clothing, or apply or take medication. Any of these actions could alter or destroy physical evidence.
3. Go to a hospital for medical attention.
4. Get help, like counseling or victim assistance.

On Campus: The Department of Student Life, specifically the Dean of Students, Director of Human Resources, or Campus Security can connect you with these services and can also help you report the incident if you choose to do so.

Off Campus: If you cannot get to or contact anyone on campus, or if it is after-hours, the following resources are available:

- The Blue Bench – Denver’s rape crisis center; call their 24-hour hotline at 303-322-7273.

- Crisis Center – 303-688-8484
- Denver Health Medical Center SANE – 303-436-6000

If you would like to speak to someone but not report the alleged violations, the Department of Student Life or the Dean of Students, or the Director of Human Resources can provide you with counseling options.

Instructions for Victims of Sexual Misconduct

Denver Seminary encourages all individuals to seek assistance from a medical provider and/or law enforcement immediately after an incident of sexual violence. This is the best option to ensure preservation of evidence and to begin a timely investigative and remedial response. The Seminary encourages individuals to also make a report to appropriate Seminary officials. Reporting to law enforcement and to the Seminary are not mutually exclusive options, as both criminal and internal reports may be pursued simultaneously.

Reporting Title IX Violations

Making a report means telling someone in authority what happened – in person, by telephone, in writing or by email. At the time a report is made, a Complainant does not have to decide whether to request any course of action, nor does a Complainant need to know how to label what happened. Choosing to make a report, and deciding how to proceed after making the report, can be a process that unfolds over time. The Seminary provides support that can assist each individual in making these important decisions and to the extent legally possible will respect an individual’s autonomy in deciding how to proceed. In this process, the Seminary will balance the individual’s interest with its obligation to provide a safe and non-discriminatory environment for all members of the Seminary community.

Information on reporting sexual misconduct and violations of the sexual misconduct policy are found in Section VII of the Denver Seminary Sexual Misconduct Policy.

Sex Offenses

Sex Offense Policy

Denver Seminary is committed to providing and maintaining a learning and working environment for all students, staff and faculty members characterized by the biblical concept of koinonia. Koinonia refers to the quality or character of one's association, communion, or fellowship with others in which truth and wisdom are valued. Equally important is a sense of Christian civility. Treating one another with mutual respect and care lies at the heart of being a part of a Christian community. Enhancing shared responsibility and mutual trust, and improving internal communications are key to promoting justice and peace in the service of God's beloved community and in finding solutions to issues that may arise in seminary and Christian life.

The values and principles of koinonia are undermined by the existence of sexual harassment or other forms of unlawful sexual discrimination, and thus the Seminary is committed to eliminating such harassment and discrimination in the seminary life of our students. Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination that is particularly incompatible with the basic goals and values of the Seminary and has the effect of destroying the atmosphere of mutual respect and dignity which the Seminary believes is central to preparation of students for ministry. The Seminary is committed to taking action to prevent and eliminate all such behavior, and will hold individuals, whether they are students, faculty, staff, or other officials of the Seminary who engage in sexual harassment, responsible and subject to disciplinary or other corrective action. The Seminary also does not condone such behavior involving any third parties, including visitors and employees of contractors.

Scope of Policies and Procedures- Sexual Harassment

These policies and procedures apply to students of the Seminary who feel they have experienced, in violation of the law or Seminary policy, sexual harassment or other unlawful discrimination on account of gender.

Sexual harassment includes direct and indirect sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:

- Submission to such conduct is either explicitly or implicitly made a term or condition of an individual's advancement or academic success; or
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used or threatened to be used as a basis for academic decisions affecting the individual involved; or
- The conduct has the purpose or the effect of creating a hostile, intimidating or offensive educational environment, or interferes with an individual's academic performance or residential environment.

Examples of behavior which may constitute sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Unwelcome verbal or physical sexual advances.
- Requests or subtle pressure for sexual favors, overt or implied.
- Remarks, jokes, comments, or observations of a sexual nature which demean or offend individuals based on their sex.
- Gestures or other nonverbal behavior of a sexual nature.
- Physical contact with another person that is unreasonable or inappropriate in the circumstances; or
- Abusive or threatening behavior directed at a person on the basis of sex.

Whether specific behavior constitutes sexual harassment is ordinarily a function of the context and circumstances. Students who have questions about whether specific behavior constitutes sexual harassment, or other unlawful sex discrimination, may consult with the Dean of Students or her designee.

Although sexual harassment generally takes place in situations where there is a power differential between the persons involved, as between faculty and student or supervisor and employee, it is recognized that sexual harassment may also occur between persons of similar status. These situations are equally unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

It is also recognized that, between parties of unequal status, sexual harassment can occur within the context of a seemingly consensual relationship. The unequal status of the parties in such relationships draws into question whether the relationship is mutually consensual.

Definitions

"Day" refers to a calendar day; the calculation of days in complaint processing will exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

"Student" refers to a currently enrolled student, or a student on leave or inactive status, or an individual who has submitted application for enrollment to the Seminary.

"Respondent" is a person identified in a complaint as having committed or engaged in sexual harassment, or unlawful sexual discrimination or retaliation, in violation of these policies and procedures or the law.

General Considerations

A student wishing to submit a complaint under this policy may be assisted by another person, selected by the student, who is a part of the Denver Seminary community, such as a faculty or staff member, or another student.

A respondent may be assisted in responding to the complaint by another person, selected by the respondent, who is a part of the Denver Seminary community, such as a faculty or staff member, or another student.

Every effort will be made to respect the confidentiality of all parties involved in the grievance process, although confidentiality cannot be guaranteed, and in some circumstances, it may be necessary to disclose information concerning the allegations and the identity of such parties such as where this is necessary for investigation, attempting to resolve the matter, developing remedial or corrective action, or preventing future harassment or discrimination.

These policies and procedures can be modified by the Seminary at any time. They are not intended to be construed or interpreted as an express or implied contract, or a legally enforceable promise.

Complaint Procedure

Persons having questions about this complaint procedure should refer them to the Dean of Students or her designee.

Any student who feels that he or she has experienced or witnessed sexual harassment or unlawful sex discrimination may submit a complaint under these procedures.

Denver Seminary Crime Prevention Programs

What to Do If You Are Assaulted or Threatened...

Think about what you would do if someone attacked you. Would you fight back, or would you avoid resisting and wait to escape? Only you can decide whether to fight back, but preparing yourself for all possibilities could provide a split-second advantage:

- If someone threatens you, shout and scream for help.
- Get to safety.
- You have every right to defend yourself with reasonable force with items that you have with you. Items such as an umbrella, hairspray, or keys can be used against an attacker.

If Someone Has Been Attacked...

Assaults and rapes are serious crimes, whether committed by a stranger or someone you know. If you have been attacked, call 911, then Seminary security personnel at 303-961-1184. Apprehending the attacker is of paramount importance.

You can help the police and Seminary security by:

- Taking the names and/or addresses of any witness.
- Trying to remember exactly what the attacker looked like.
- If a car was involved, noting the color, model, and license plate number.
- You do not need to go to the police station to report an assault. You can be interviewed in your own home if you wish. These crimes are dealt with sympathetically, regardless of gender. Many police departments have specially trained officers who will help and support you.

Crime Prevention Tips

Following these tips can help you stay safe when you are out and about:

- Carry your bag close to you with the clasp facing inwards. Carry your house keys in your pocket. If someone grabs your bag, let it go. If you hang on, you could get hurt. Remember that your safety is more important than your property.
- If you think someone is following you, check by crossing the street — more than once if necessary — to see if the person follows. If you are still worried, get to the nearest place where there are other people and call the police or Seminary security.
- If you regularly go jogging or cycling, try to vary your route and time. Stick to well-lit roads with pavement. On commons and parklands, keep to main paths and open spaces where you can see and be seen by other people — avoid wooded areas. If you wear personal stereo headphones or earbuds, remember that you cannot hear traffic or somebody approaching from behind.

- Do not take short cuts through dark alleys, parks, or across waste ground. Walk facing the traffic so a car cannot pull up behind you unnoticed.
- If a car stops and you are threatened, scream and shout. Get away as quickly as you can. This allows you to gain vital seconds and make it more difficult for the car's driver to follow. If possible, make a mental note of the license plate number and description of the car. Once you are safe, write down any details as soon as possible.
- Cover up expensive-looking jewelry.

Emergency Preparedness and Response

Procedures to Immediately Notify the Campus Community of an Emergency/Dangerous Situation

Denver Seminary's emergency response procedures are detailed in the Emergency Procedures Guide, an easy-to-use guide posted in classrooms on campus and available to all employees on the DenSem Security SharePoint Site. The guide covers ten (10) different emergency situations and includes emergency phone numbers, crime prevention tips and safety considerations for persons with disabilities. Procedures to immediately notify the campus community upon the confirmation of an emergency on-campus or the immediate vicinity are included by various means appropriate to the situation, whether it is an evacuation of buildings or shelter-in-place that is warranted. Seminary personnel will work as closely as possible with Littleton Police to confirm the seriousness of the emergency, the scope of notification and appropriateness of the message content in issuing the notification.

The Seminary personnel included in responsibility for carrying-out this notification process are as follows: President, Provost/Dean, Vice President of Finance, Vice President of Student Life & Enrollment Management, Vice President of Advancement, and Director of Communications, and Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management & Security.

An evacuation drill in campus buildings, including the campus apartments, was conducted September 23, 2019 in compliance with the annual requirement.

Fire Safety

Any incident of a fire occurring on campus will involve Seminary security personnel, Facilities staff, and the local Fire Department. A fire in any building may result in the loss of life or injuries, damage to physical structures, release of chemicals or biological hazards. Therefore, any suspected fire, smell of smoke, or visible manifestation of a fire must be considered as a working fire and treated by responding personnel as factual rather than as a possibility.

The following should be contacted to report a fire:

- Littleton Fire Rescue – 911
- Jay Stimson – Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security, at 303-357-5818; or, if unavailable,
- Rob Bachman – Director of Facilities, 303-762-6970,

If after Seminary business hours or during the weekend –
Call security at 303-961-1184

Reporting the Fire

In any situation where a fire is known to exist or if a fire is suspected, the following steps must be taken:

1. DIAL 911 AND REPORT THE FIRE

2. Provide 911 with the following information:

- Your name, location, and the reason you suspect (or know) a fire exists
- Whether or not you have notified the fire department
- Whether or not you know of people trapped in the building
- Whether or not you know of chemical, biological, or radioactive hazards in the building
- Answer any questions asked of you

Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics

The following crime statistics have been compiled by Jay Stimson, Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security to meet the annual reporting requirement of the Department of Education by means of the annual Campus Crime and Security Survey. Introduction

The Annual Fire Safety Report is being prepared in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Education Requirements. Denver Seminary is committed to ensuring the safety of our students, faculty and staff as well as remaining in compliance with regulatory directives.

For the purpose of this report, a fire is "Any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner." The Seminary has 93 apartment units on-campus, contained in four separate buildings, at the following addresses:

Building #1

6409 S Vinewood
Littleton, CO 80120

Building #2

6419 S Vinewood
Littleton, CO 80120

Building #3

6429 S Vinewood
Littleton, CO 80120

Building #4

6439 S Vinewood
Littleton, CO 80120

There were no fires in any of the apartment buildings in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

The following should be contacted to report a fire:

- Littleton Fire Department – 911
- Jay Stimson – Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security, at 303-357-5818; or, if unavailable,
- Rob Bachman – Director of Facilities, at 303-762-6970,

Description of the Fire Safety System for Each of the Campus Apartments

Each Denver Seminary apartment building (all constructed in 2005 as part of the new campus) contains a heat activated sprinkler system and fire alarms in each apartment. There are fire alarm pull stations in the first-floor walkways throughout each building and a strobe light and alarm that sounds if triggered by any one of these system components. The system is electronically monitored by the Seminary's contractor, Security Central, which alerts security personnel and the Littleton Fire Department if the fire safety system is activated. In addition, small fire extinguishers have been installed in the kitchen of all apartments. During their move-in appointments, incoming residents are provided instructions in their Welcome Packet on how to use their fire extinguishers.

Denver Seminary Policies and Rules on Smoking, and Open Flames in Campus Apartments

Please see Denver Seminary Housing Policies regarding smoking and open flames in student housing.

Smoking

Denver Seminary does not allow smoking anywhere on campus.

Procedures for Student Housing Evacuation

Evacuation routes and the destination for each apartment building are posted in each walkway throughout the complex. Incoming residents are provided with fire evacuation instructions in their Welcome Packet. Residents are to evacuate to the designated destination whenever they hear the fire alarm for their building and remain there until the “all clear” is given by Seminary personnel in conjunction with the Littleton Fire Department.

An evacuation drill for the campus apartment residents in all four buildings was conducted on September 23, 2019, in compliance with the annual requirement.

Paper or electronic copies of this report are available upon request from Jay Stimson, Director of Auxiliary Enterprises, Risk Management and Security at 303-357-5818. Please direct any questions or comments regarding security at Denver Seminary to Jay Stimson.
