1. Read or listen to the book Created for Connection™ by Dr. Sue Johnson.
2. Attend this two-day couples experience to:

- ✓ Shape the loving, intimate relationship you were designed to enjoy!

For each of the Seven Conversations, you will hear a brief teaching and engage in discussion, watch DVD clips with Dr. Sue Johnson working with couples, and work on structured exercises during private breakout sessions.

Sharing with the group not required. Singles may be paired with other singles during breakout segments.

Counseling students will gain practical experience in Emotionally Focused Therapy (EFT)!
