Searching for Counseling Articles Subject Guide

1. ProQuest PsycARTICLES: full-text articles from APA journals, APA Educational Publishing Foundation, the Canadian Psychological Association, and Hogrefe & Huber.

2. Academic Search Premiere: multi-disciplinary database of peer-reviewed full-text and abstracts of journal articles

3. ProQuest PsycINFO PlusText: index and abstracts of international psychological literature, including journal articles, books, and dissertations, not limited to APA and ACA publications.

If you locate an article in PsycINFO without a full-text you can search for the article in the DTL.

1. Choose Journals from the DTL home page.

2. Choose Advanced Search from the next page, and keep (x0:jrnl) on the 1st search line.

3. Enter the title of the journal on the 2nd search line.

5. Scroll down the Journal page to “Browse specific issues” to locate the article.

6. If you still cannot find the article, request it through Interlibrary Loan or email Charlotte Nutter.
