

Digital Resources for the New Testament

1. Denver Library Catalog; DC Library Catalog
2. Denver Journal: reviews and essays focusing on biblical and theological studies, includes the Old and New Testament bibliographies, see current volume.
3. EBSCO Databases
 - a. Atla Religion Database with AtlaSerials PLUS (choose from list): over 2.8 million records including full-text articles and reviews from 490+ journals, also essays and book records in all fields of religion and theology
 - b. New Testament Abstracts (choose from list): index and abstracts for journal articles, monographs, multi-author works, and software related to New Testament studies
 - c. AtlaSerials, Religion Collection (choose from list): full-text records and citations from 350+ journals, both PDFs and searchable text of articles and reviews in all fields of religion and theology
 - d. Academic Search Premiere (choose from list): multi-disciplinary database of peer-reviewed full-text and abstracts of journal articles
4. Digital Theological Library Resources
 - a. Biblical Studies Resources: DTL page of databases, academic journals, commentaries and reference works
 - b. New Testament Commentaries: in DTL includes general commentaries and New Testament commentaries by book
 - c. Greek Language: grammars and lexicons
 - d. Textual criticism and text resources
 - i. Textual Criticism: websites, databases and eBooks
 - ii. Institut für Neutestamentliche Textforschung (Institute for New Testament Textual Research): an important resource for in-depth study of New Testament textual criticism
 - iii. Center for the Study of New Testament Manuscripts: digital library of New Testament manuscripts
 - iv. Open Scriptures: compare some classic editions of the Greek New Testament side-by-side.
 - v. UBS 5 and NA28 (no textual apparatus)
 - e. Synoptic Gospels: eBooks on the Synoptic Gospels in general, and individual Gospels, does not include New Testament commentaries listed above
 - f. Synoptic Problem and Q: eBooks
 - g. Historical Jesus: reference works and digital resources; use the DTL advanced search for additional resources
 - h. Johannine Studies: covers John's Gospel, Epistles, and Revelation, does not include New Testament commentaries listed above
 - i. Parables: eBooks, articles and essays, does not include New Testament commentaries listed above
 - j. Pauline Studies: eBooks on Paul's writings, does not include New Testament commentaries listed above
 - k. Paul and Patristics: comprehensive database of Pauline references in pre-Nicene writings
 - l. Oxford Handbooks Online: 3,000+ articles related to the New Testament reviewing key issues and debates
 - m. DTL Deuterocanon/Apocrypha: commentaries in the DTL by book and general works on the Apocrypha
 - n. Greco-Roman Religions: journals, and eBooks on the world of 2nd Temple Judaism and Early Christianity; use the DTL advanced search for additional resources

- o. DTL Dead Sea Scrolls: important reference works, journals, digital databases, and transcriptions of the scrolls
- p. Loeb Digital Classical Library: entire collection of Harvard Press' Loeb Classical Library of most important works of classical literature available in bilingual (Greek-English or Latin-English); constantly updated, helpful in understanding the Greco-Roman world during 2nd Temple Judaism and the rise of Christianity.
- q. New Testament Backgrounds
 - i. Database of Military Inscriptions and Papyri of Early Roman Palestine: Jewish soldiers, Palestinian soldiers, military religion, the Herodian dynasty, the Jewish War (66-73 CE), and more
 - ii. Institute for the Study of the Ancient World from New York University: maps, documents, images from the Roman Empire, very useful for advanced study of the New Testament and Christian origins.
 - iii. Center for Hellenic Studies \(Harvard\): books, articles, translations of major works providing classical backgrounds of the New Testament
 - iv. Bryn Mawr Classical Review: open access, peer-reviewed reviews of current scholarly work in the field of classical studies including archaeology from 1990 to the present
 - v. BAS Library: 7,000+ full-text articles and 22,000 captioned images related to Biblical archeology
 - vi. Society of Biblical Literature Bible Odyssey: latest historical and literary research on key people, places, and passages of the Bible

5. DTL Databases

- a. JSTOR in DTL: articles and books; search by specific title and/or author
- b. ProQuest Academic Complete in DTL: eBooks including many on the New Testament
- c. ProQuest Religion Database in DTL: primarily full-text, international journals for diverse religious and spiritual studies, including titles from global religious publishing bodies and nondenominational organizations

6. Theses and Dissertations

- a. TREN: theses, dissertations from Denver Seminary and over 135 institutions and conference papers from the Evangelical Theological Society and other academic societies
- b. ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global: most comprehensive collection of dissertations and theses from around the world, millions of works from thousands of universities; full-text coverage spans from 1743 to the present, with citation coverage dating back to 1637
- c. American Doctoral Dissertations: open dissertations from 2002-present in EBSCO
- d. EThOS: Doctoral research theses in open access from the UK
- e. DART: European universities' open access research theses

7. Ancient Language fonts

- a. SBL Downloadable Fonts and keyboards
 - i. Greek Font
 - ii. SBL Hebrew Font
 - iii. SBL Transliteration font
- b. Logos original language Keyboards for windows

8. General Resources

- a. SBL Handbook of Style: 2014, 2nd edition
- b. Project Muse in DTL: books and journals from over 200 university presses and scholarly societies
- c. Biblical Bibliography of Lausanne: search by category for journal articles from many leading academic journals, no full-text

- d. BILDI \(Documentation for Biblical Literature Innsbruck\): similar to Biblical Bibliography of Lausanne; limited to biblical studies including many journals not found in JSTOR or ProQuest, no full-text
- e. BiblicalStudies.org.UK: journals and tools for exegesis
- f. American Center of Oriental Research: photo archive of Jordan and the surrounding region
- g. African Journal Archive: journal archive from publishers and societies on the continent, some New Testament
- h. WorldCat: books and other materials in libraries worldwide; use to search for specific item or a very targeted search