Significance of Singleness Symposium: Casting an Alternative Vision

The Church often recognizes the role of married couples and individuals. But what about the significance of singleness? Denver Seminary's Student Life would like to invite you to explore the critical role of singleness in the flourishing of the church.

We invite Denver Seminary students, alumni, staff, and faculty as well as Denver community members to join us for this important conversation!

Date: November 8, 2019

Time: 2:00 PM - 8:30 PM

Location: Denver Seminary Chapel

More info and registration here.

Advent Retreats

Rather than “peace on earth,” the seasons of Advent and Christmas can produce stress in our souls. Instead of the joy of expectation, we are seduced into the agitation of crowds, noise, hurry, and $\&\}^{\sim}\{\wedge\}$ ism.

Join us for the day to connect with God and to prepare for the seasons of Advent and Christmas. Two brief sessions of Scriptural guidance will ground your time of silence, solitude, and rest.

DENVER SEMINARY
ENGAGE360
PODCAST

The logo for Engage360 Podcast features the text 'ENGAGE360' in a bold, sans-serif font. The '360' is in a blue color, and the '0' is replaced by a circular icon containing a play button symbol. Below the text, there is a blue circular arrow pointing clockwise, suggesting a continuous cycle or podcast feed.

Are you listening to Engage360, the Denver Seminary podcast? Through Engage360, Denver Seminary and our guests explore the redemptive power of the gospel and the life-changing truth of Scripture at work in our culture today. Together, we address the larger conversations taking place within the spheres of evangelicalism, theological education, and cultural engagement. Listen on iTunes, Spotify, or Google Play.

This week's episode featured Denver Seminary President Mark Young and Provost/Dean Lynn Cohick discussing Charitable Orthodoxy in the Conversation about Gender Roles in Ministry. Questions, comments, or suggestions? Email podcast@denverseminary.edu. We'd love your feedback.

Join the Denver Seminary Alumni Facebook Group! This is a place for alumni to connect with one another from around the world and share updates, questions, resources, and stay connected to Denver Seminary.

The Job Board is provided as a service to Denver Seminary students, alumni and the community. Click here to post a job opening or look through the listings.

Are you ready to go green?

If you do more reading online than offline, you may be ready to go green with Engage Magazine. If you'd like to receive a PDF version rather than a hard copy, please email Communications@denverseminary.edu and let them know. In the future, you'll receive an email with a pdf. Same magazine, just a different way of reading!

The Story of Creeds and Confessions: Tracing the Development of the Christian Faith

by Donald Fairbairn (class of 1989) and Ryan M. Reeves

Creeds and confessions throughout Christian history provide a unique vantage point from which to study the Christian faith. To this end, Donald Fairbairn and Ryan Reeves construct a story that captures both the central importance of creeds and confessions over the centuries and their unrealized potential to introduce readers to the overall sweep of church history. The book features texts of classic creeds and confessions as well as informational sidebars.
