WAIVER AND PERMISSION

I understand that I hold the copyright to my thesis/dissertation/project, and that in granting the following permission, I retain the copyright.

Because this work was created while a student as part of the coursework for my degree, I understand that I have the right under the FERPA law to prevent its release to third parties. If I choose to waive that right for this manuscript, I agree to the following:

In consideration of making my work available to those in the academic world and others, I hereby grant Denver Seminary the non-exclusive worldwide right to reproduce, distribute, display and transmit the work in such tangible and electronic formats as may be in existence now or developed in the future.

I hereby warrant that I am the sole author of the thesis/dissertation/project, and it does not violate any right of privacy, contain any matter that is libelous or obscene, and that it does not infringe upon any statutory or common copyright law. I, the undersigned am legally empowered to enter into this agreement.

I will submit a digital manuscript (PDF) ready for publication without change or further editing by email to <mailto:library@denverseminary.edu>.

Denver Seminary shall have the right to retain the digital manuscript, publish it in the Denver Seminary Open Repository, and make it accessible worldwide in TREN (Theological Research Network), in the Open Access Digital Theological Library and any other open repository with which the Seminary may affiliate in the future. I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless Denver Seminary and the Open Access Digital Theological Library for any damages that it may sustain as a breach of the foregoing warranties and/or as a result of any misrepresentation in the information provided above.
